

Remote Learning

During Lockdown 1, in the Easter and Whit holidays, we posted daily challenges on Twitter to help our families to try and pass some time in addition to their 'daily walk'. The uptake was fantastic.

HCE Daily Challenge Day 6: Today your challenge is to make a tray garden. It can include things out of your garden (soil, stones, wood, plants etc) or small world toys, or both.

HCE Daily Challenge Day 7: Today we want you to get creative in the kitchen and make or bake something to share with your family. There are lots of websites with ideas. Will you accept the challenge young chefs? 🙌🙌
#HCEDailyChallengeDay7 #YoungChef #FunInTheKitchen

HCE Daily Challenge Day 3: Can you learn how to say a few phrases and count to 10 or 20 in a different language? When you've practised, why not make a video and post it on twitter. Here's a video of some children playing a counting game in French...

HCE Daily Challenge - Monday 6th April...
Can you build a den that you can read or play a game in? It can be outdoors or indoors. Take a picture of you in your den and tweet it to us. Have fun. 🙌 #HCEDailyChallenge #BuildADen

Oh wow... that's super impressive. The rooms of you #BugHotel will be overflowing. 🙌🙌 @Natures_Voice 🐛🐛
